

HARMONIA:

Madison Center For Psychotherapy

406 North Pinckney Street • Madison, Wisconsin 53703-1410 • 608/255-8838 • Fax 608/255-8837

CLIENT RIGHTS

Please read the following information and sign below:

Client Rights & Grievance Procedure: All clients at Harmonia: Madison Center for Psychotherapy are guaranteed certain rights, which are guarded by the professional ethics of your therapist and by state and federal laws. Your therapist has offered you a written copy of these rights titled "Client Rights and the Grievance Procedure" and is willing to discuss them with you. Your rights and confidentiality are in accordance with DHS 94 Wis. Admin. Code for Patient Rights and DHS 92 for confidentiality, and are also guaranteed by Sec. 51.30 Wis. Statutes.

Confidentiality: All treatment records or spoken information which in any way identifies a client are considered confidential and privileged to the subject individual. The disclosure of any information regarding your care is subject to your informed consent. Disclosure of information without your consent is strictly limited by DHS 92 and Sec. 51.30 Wis. Statutes and by federal HIPAA law. You can discuss the parameters of confidentiality with your therapist at any time.

Professional Licensure: Each clinician at Harmonia: Madison Center for Psychotherapy is a Wisconsin licensed professional commensurate with his or her degree. Harmonia maintains professional requirements for each clinician's practice here. We are not a state certified clinic since we are each regulated by our professions and our licensure.

Additional Comments:

Client Signature

Date

Therapist Signature

Date